

About Us

Johnson, Kendall & Johnson, Inc. is a privately owned independent firm, run exclusively by insurance brokers with no attachment to any insurer or financial institution.

Over the last 65 years, JKJ has grown to be acknowledged as one of the premier insurance brokerage firms in the United States. JKJ's capabilities have also expanded throughout the world during the past 20 years.

JKJ's personalized service is the reason why clients benefit from our approach to protection, which includes loss control and risk management services.

Risk Management

Johnson, Kendall & Johnson takes pride in providing unparalleled service delivery to our client and we are committed to developing a strong risk management partnership with each client organization – the ultimate goal being a reduction in your long-term cost of risk. We integrate our experience, knowledge, people and passion with your entire organization.

Claims Management

Johnson, Kendall & Johnson's Claims Group offers a myriad of services based on our extensive claims experience in the Property & Casualty industry.

Our interactive approach, coupled with technical expertise, enables JKJ's claims professionals to evaluate, problem-solve and develop programs tailored specifically to the needs of your organization to positively impact the long-term net cost of insurance.

Risk Management Audit

Johnson, Kendall and Johnson's Risk Management Audit involves several steps. Each facet of the audit process requires input from JKJ and our client. This process is proven to reduce exposures through identification, reduce frequency and severity of losses through implementation, and ultimately reduce the cost of insurance through managing and mitigating risk more efficiently and successfully. We believe hard work is important. We also believe that working smart is just as critical.

personal insurance

JKJ Private Client Group specializes in protecting you by tailoring products and services that are specific to you, not just to your assets. You won't find that through an automated web site. From insurance protection that covers what's important to you, to financial management that helps you achieve more and do more, Johnson, Kendall & Johnson is passionate about your protection.

Dedication to Personal Service

Our clients are aligned with a personal insurance executive and a dedicated service representative, assuring that you receive the counsel and service you deserve.

Risk Management Approach

Evaluating the threats to your home and other assets at risk coupled with your protection goals is an essential step in managing your risk. With focused experience in underwriting, claims management and loss control, JKJ is committed to reducing your long-term costs and protecting the things you cherish.

Customized Solutions to Meet Your Needs

No two clients have the same needs or issues. A Risk Management approach considering protection, avoidance and insurance programs is customized to address your unique needs.

How JKJ Helps You

Your insurance program is developed focused on your unique issues and concerns for asset protection, property protection, and premium value. Our partnership with insurance providers assures that your coverage meets your priorities at the best possible price. We believe hard work is important. We also believe that working smart is just as critical.
